Sales Conference social evening

During the Sales Conference in October a social evening was held at the Brush Club.

After a hard day in the MD'S office Lesley Cuninghame is having an equally hard time in the Tiddleywinks Championship against Jane Wood who finally won the contest.

Supporting the finalists are Michael and Tricia Simpson (and skeleton friend), Horst Nissen back centre (German Sales Engineer) and Pat and Bill Petrie.

Our man from Houston, Malcolm Stonehouse blew in to throw a mean dart.

Purchasing Manager Ray Gore is not quite sure whether to drink his pint or tiddle his wink. Rob Jones and Pete Brown look on.
